

HIGH SCHOOL PROFILE 2017-2018

COMMUNITY

St. Petersburg is located in northwestern Russia on the delta of the Neva River and the Gulf of Finland. With over four million inhabitants, St. Petersburg is Russia's second largest city, Europe's third largest city. A major European cultural center, St. Petersburg is Russia's most important port on the Baltic.

SCHOOL

The Anglo-American School of St. Petersburg (AAS-SP) is an independent, non-profit, co-educational day school founded in 1971. Approximately 45 of the 184 total students are currently enrolled in the high school.

AAS-SP provides an English language education for grades Pre-Kindergarten through 12 (ages 4 -18). The school is in the heart of the city, within walking distance from the Peter and Paul Fortress and the Hermitage Museum.

Governance of the school rests jointly with the American, British and Canadian Embassies comprised of a nine member School Board of the Anglo-American School of Moscow. As well, a local Advisory Committee comprised of the American + British Consuls General and appointed parents drawn from the business and diplomatic communities.

The students represent over 30 nationalities, the largest groups being Korean and Russian. Instruction is given in English. Students must demonstrate minimum English language proficiency to be admitted to the High School, language support is provided for students with identified needs.

AAS-SP MISSION STATEMENT

The Anglo-American School of St. Petersburg empowers each student to:

- Respect self and others
- Love learning, and
- Contribute as a globally aware citizen

in order to achieve individual academic and holistic excellence.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

As a High School that is proud of its international community, we strive to provide an education that cherishes but also challenges our students' attitudes and values. Through unique projects and extra-curricular activities, we aim to provide our students with significant opportunities to lead and to serve.

FACULTY

The High School faculty consists of both full-time and part-time professionals representing three nationalities. Faculty teaching Advanced Placement (AP) courses regularly attend AP accredited workshops. Our knowledgeable and caring faculty are dedicated to educating the whole student.
